

Introducing The DAISY In Training Award

Celebrating Student Nurses for Their Commitment to Compassionate Patient Care and for Demonstrating
Outstanding Clinical Skills

The DAISY Foundation

Diseases Attacking the Immune System

Founded November, 1999
In memory of J. Patrick Barnes

Meet Pat and DAISY's Co-founders

Bonnie and Mark

Tena, Pat and baby Riley

Pat, age 33

The DAISY Award Growing

- Created to say thank you to nurses
- Now in over 1,500 healthcare facilities in ten countries

- The DAISY Award
- The DAISY Faculty Award
- J. Patrick Barnes grants for Nursing Research and evidence -based practice projects
- The DAISY In Training Award

The DAISY Foundation- Fundamental Principles

- On- going recognition
- Turn-Key Implementation

DAISY provides most materials

- Flexible so it may be tailored to fit your needs and culture

Why a DAISY In Training Award?

- Nursing school is tough. The DAISY In Training Award is meant to inspire nursing students to remember why they wanted to be a nurse in the first place.
- Recognizing the care and compassion shown to patients.

Celebrating what it means to be a nurse.

The DAISY Faculty Award

- The DAISY In Training Award can be utilized as a stand alone award or as a powerful complement to The DAISY Faculty Award.
- The Impact on the future practice patterns of students.
- Inspiration for compassionate patient care
- Dedication to the profession of nursing.

Who Will Run The DAISY In Training Award?

It's up to you! Some options to consider are:

- A group of Nursing Students, such as the Student Nurses Association.
- A joint committee of Students and Faculty.
- Faculty and representatives of the Dean's office.

Who Can Be Nominated for DAISY In Training?

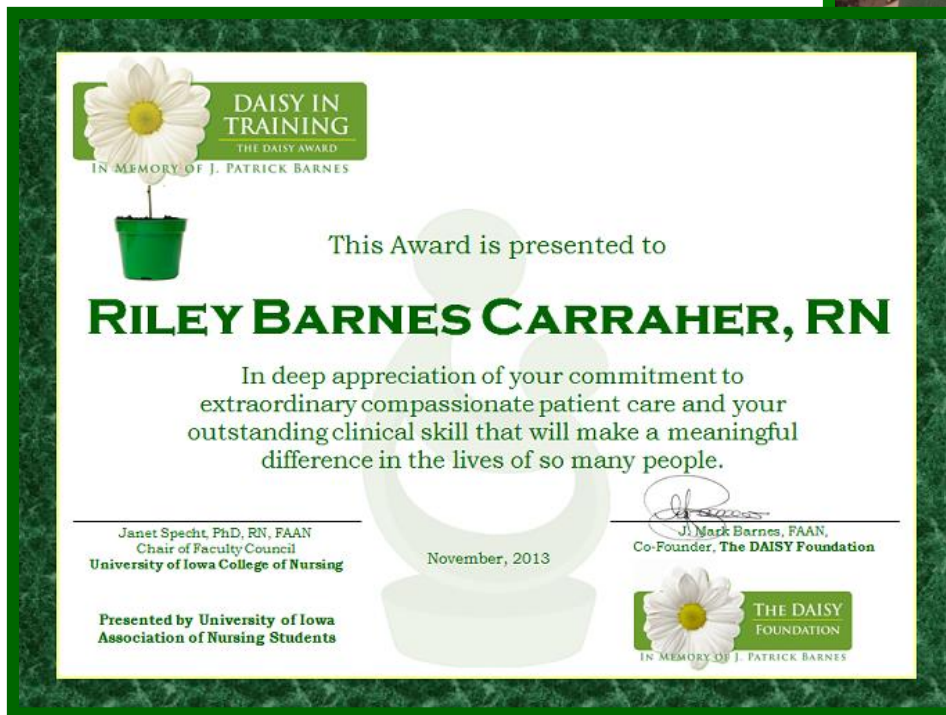

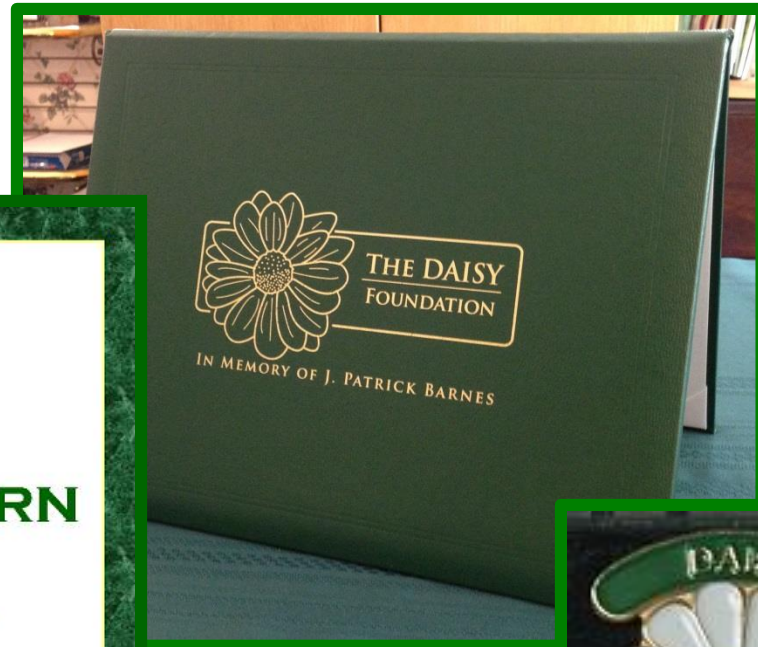

- Any student nurse, studying at an RN level or above can be nominated.
- Anyone can submit a nomination!
- Nominations should honor not only great clinical skill but also strong patient care and compassion.

Each DAISY In Training Honoree Receives

- Personalized Certificate and Holder

DAISY In Training
Pin

Healer's Touch

Artists' video on DAISY website

A smaller version of our original healers touch. All statues are hand carved in Zimbabwe and signed by the artist

Cinnabon at Every DAISY Celebration

Whenever you smell that wonderful cinnamon aroma, stop for a minute and think of how special you are because you are a nurse. You may take for granted the things you do for your patients but they surely do not.

Each DAISY In Training Honoree Receives:

- DAISY Kleenex
- DAISY Tote

Funding The DAISY In Training Award

Number of Awards	Price
2 per semester- 4 per year	$400
2 per quarter- 8 per year	$800

Conclusion

- At The DAISY Foundation we want to celebrate all Nurses. From their first days in Nursing School, to their retirement as a DAISY Champion. We hope you will consider honoring all of the Extraordinary work taking place at your School of Nursing every day with The DAISY In Training Award.

